ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION¹

The Respondent's motion for reconsideration of the Board's Decision and Order reported at 366 NLRB No. 131 (2018) is denied. The Respondent has not identified any material error or demonstrated extraordinary circumstances warranting reconsideration under Section 102.48(c)(1) of the Board's Rules and Regulations.²

Dated, Washington, D.C., October 17, 2018.

Lauren McFerran, Member

Marvin E. Kaplan, Member

¹ The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel. Chairman Ring took no part in the consideration of this motion or the underlying decision.

² Member Kaplan did not participate in the Board's underlying decision, and he expresses no view on whether it was correctly decided. He agrees, however, that the Respondent's motion for reconsideration should be denied because it fails to establish any grounds warranting reconsideration under Sec. 102.48 of the Board's Rules and Regulations.

Member Emanuel adheres to his dissent in the underlying decision, but he agrees that the Respondent has not raised any issue not previously considered or shown extraordinary circumstances warranting reconsideration.

William J. Emanuel, Member
